

The Strike Publicity Stills

Photo Credits & Captions

Broadcast Premiere: Monday, February 3, 2025

- #01 STRIKE_SigImage
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: A man sits alone in a solitary confinement cell in Pelican Bay State Prison, where he has been trapped for decades (dramatic reenactment from THE STRIKE)

- #02 STRIKE_PubStill_02
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: Jack Morris spent most of his time in solitary confinement while in prison for over four decades.

- #03 STRIKE_PubStill_03
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: The Pelican Bay State Prison Security Housing was opened in 1989 to hold over 1,000 people in solitary confinement. It is located amidst the redwood forests on the remote Northern California coast near the Oregon border.

- #04 STRIKE_PubStill_04
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: Hunger striker Michael Saavedra is seen here after surviving over fifteen years in solitary confinement.

- #05 STRIKE_PubStill_05
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: The Pelican Bay State Prison Security Housing Unit was opened in 1989 to hold over 1,000 people in solitary confinement in concrete windowless cells about the size of a parking spot.

1435 FOLSOM STREET
SAN FRANCISCO CA 94103
T. 415 356 8383
F. 415 356 8391
PBS.ORG/INDEPENDENTLENS

#06 STRIKE_PubStill_06
Credit: The Strike Film
Caption: Hunger striker Paul Redd spent over 30 years in solitary confinement.

1435 FOLSOM STREET
SAN FRANCISCO CA 94103
T. 415 356 8383
F. 415 356 8391
PBS.ORG/INDEPENDENTLENS

HEADSHOTS

STRIKE_Headshot_JoeBillMuñoz

Credit: N/A

Caption: JoeBill Muñoz, Director and Producer of The Strike

STRIKE_Headshot_LucasGuilkey

Credit: N/A

Caption: Lucas Guilkey, Director and Producer of The Strike

###