INDEPENDENT LENS DOCUMENTARIES RECEIVE 4 NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY® AWARD NOMINATIONS, INCLUDING FOR “CODED BIAS” AND “MR. SOUL!”

(San Francisco, CA) July 28, 2022 — PBS’s award-winning documentary anthology series INDEPENDENT LENS, in association with ITVS, today announced four films released under its banner have been honored with News and Documentary Emmy® Award nominations, including Outstanding Science and Technology Documentary and Outstanding Business and Economic Documentary. Nominated projects include “Coded Bias,” “Cured,” “Storm Lake,” and “Mr. SOUL!”.

These documentaries from INDEPENDENT LENS focus on topics including the ways technology propels racial inequality, the fight for LGBTQ+ equality, the importance of local journalism, and the rise of the first Black variety show.

“With every documentary we co-produce and present on INDEPENDENT LENS, our hope is that audiences re-examine complex issues affecting other people and communities,” said INDEPENDENT LENS Executive Producer Lois Vossen. “These much-deserved nominations recognize the filmmakers’ timeless work and commitment to fearless storytelling. We congratulate them and are extremely proud to showcase these documentaries that educate and inspire.”
