ITVS-FUNDED PROJECTS RECEIVE TWELVE NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY AWARD NOMINATIONS

INDEPENDENT LENS FILMS RECEIVE EIGHT NOMINATIONS

(San Francisco, CA, July 26, 2018) Twelve documentaries funded by ITVS received News & Documentary Emmy Award nominations, it was announced today, including eight nominations for films that premiered on Independent Lens on PBS. The nominated films include Steve James’s Abacus: Small Enough to Jail, Keith Maitland’s TOWER, Susan Gray and Bestor Cram’s Birth of a Movement, and James Solomon’s The Witness (see complete list below.) The News & Documentary Emmy Awards will be presented on Monday, October 1st, 2018, at a ceremony at Jazz at Lincoln Center’s Frederick P. Rose Hall in the Time Warner Complex at Columbus Circle in New York City.

"We are incredibly honored to receive 12 nominations for ITVS co-productions, a testament to the breadth of work that independent artists bring to series across public television," said Sally Jo Fifer, president and CEO of ITVS. "The bold work of these talented producers reaches national audiences on Frontline, POV, American ReFramed, and Independent Lens, giving voice to communities across America."

"Delving deep into a wide range of subjects including racism, the dire consequences of industrial agriculture, rising nationalism around the globe, education inequity, drone warfare, and the first mass shooting in U.S. history, these films hold a mirror up to our world," said Lois Vossen, Independent Lens Executive Producer. "We’re extremely proud to have partnered with these talented filmmakers on complex, relevant films that capture America—and the world—at a crossroads. Because of our trusted brand the films also encourage audiences to more thoughtful conversations."

Formed by Congress in 1988 to address the lack of diverse voices in public media, ITVS has served as an incubator for filmmakers and a funding engine for more than 1400 films. Recipient of the 2017 Peabody Institutional Award, ITVS was recognized by the Peabody Awards Board of Jurors for its "broad transformative impact on the media landscape."

The nominated films are:

Abacus: Small Enough to Jail (Outstanding Business and Economics Documentary)
Frontline/Filmmaker: Steve James
ITVS Supervising Producer: David Eisenberg

Almost Sunrise (Outstanding Current Affairs Documentary)
POV/Filmmaker: Michael Collins
ITVS Supervising Producer: David Eisenberg
In an attempt to put haunting combat experiences behind them, two friends embark on an epic 2,700-mile trek on foot across America, seeking redemption and healing as a way to close the moral chasm opened by war. Almost Sunrise is an intimate, vérité film that eschews stereotypes and instead captures an unprecedented portrait of veterans — one of hope, potential and untold possibilities.

The Bad Kids (Outstanding Business and Economics Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmakers: Lou Pepe and Keith Fulton
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill
At a remote Mojave Desert high school, extraordinary educators believe that empathy and life skills, more than academics, give at-risk students command of their own futures. The film shows how education can combat the crippling effects of poverty for these so-called "bad kids."

Birth of a Movement (Outstanding Historical Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmakers: Susan Gray and Bestor Cram
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill
When The Birth of a Nation opened in 1915, the unrepentantly racist film was met with widespread protests by African Americans. The film, which would lead to a national resurgence of the KKK, unleashed a battle still waging today about the First Amendment, censorship, race relations and representation, and the power and influence of Hollywood.

Deej (Outstanding Graphic Design and Art Direction)
America ReFramed/Animator: Em Cooper
ITVS Supervising Producer: David Eisenberg
Abandoned by his birth parents and presumed incompetent, DJ Savarese ("Deej") found not only a loving family but also a life in words, which he types on a text-to-voice synthesizer. As he makes his way through high school and dreams of college, he confronts the terrors of his past, society's obstacles to inclusion, and the sometimes paralyzing beauty of his own senses.

Farewell Ferris Wheel (Outstanding Business and Economics Documentary)
America ReFramed/Filmmakers: Miguel Martinez and Jamie Sisley
ITVS Supervising Producer: Michael Kinomoto
Carnivals have a delightful place in the American imagination but rising expenses and changes in U.S. labor patterns mean this national pastime is nearly extinct. Farewell Ferris Wheel is an inside look at the struggles of an industry trying to stay alive by employing Mexican migrant workers with a controversial visa.

Forever Pure (Outstanding Politics and Government Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmaker: Maya Zinshtein
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill
Forever Pure follows what happened when two Muslim players joined Israel’s most popular and controversial football team. Through the story of one tumultuous season in the life of this famed club, the film offers a dramatic window into modern Israeli society.
National Bird (Outstanding Current Affairs Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmaker: Sonia Kennebeck
ITVS Supervising Producer: Shana Swanson

National Bird follows the dramatic journey of whistleblowers determined to break the silence around one of the most controversial issues of our time: the secret U.S. drone war.

SEED: The Untold Story (Outstanding Nature Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmakers: Jon Betz and Taggart Siegel
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill

Few things on Earth are as miraculous and vital as seeds but, in the last century, 94% of our seed varieties have disappeared. SEED follows the journey of passionate seed keepers around the world determined to protect our 12,000-year-old food legacy.

TOWER (Outstanding Historical Documentary) (Outstanding Music & Sound)
Independent Lens/Filmmaker: Keith Maitland
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill

On August 1, 1966, a sniper rode the elevator to the top floor of the University of Texas Tower and opened fire. When the gunshots were finally silenced, the toll included 16 dead, three dozen wounded, and a shaken nation left trying to understand.

The Witness (Best Documentary)
Independent Lens/Filmmaker: James Solomon
ITVS Supervising Producer: Amy Shatsky-Gambrill

In 1964, 28-year-old Kitty Genovese was repeatedly stabbed on a street in Queens. Soon after, The New York Times published a front-page story asserting that 38 neighbors watched her murder — and did nothing to help. The Witness follows the efforts of Kitty’s brother as he launches his own investigation into his sister’s life and death.
